Joe speaks from practical experience and undeniable passion. Joe began his first company, Sharp Innovations, Inc, in 1999 at age 20. His exceptional drive and focus has only increased over the past decade, and he wants to share his knowledge with your

Joe also draws extensively from his personal life. His openness about how to make relational, spiritual and personal dreams come true make his lessons insightful and meaningful.

Speaking in Honesty

Joe doesn't speak about anything he doesn't practice himself. He backs his passion for helping people help others in his own life.
